

A portrait of Craig Knowles, a bald man with a friendly expression, wearing a light-colored cable-knit sweater. The background is dark and out of focus.

CRAIG KNOWLES

Finance Director

As Finance Director, Craig leads our Foodbuy Finance team with a focus on a being a 'critical friend' business partnering the Category teams, process efficiency and creating a strong financial control environment.

In addition to this, Craig and the Finance team have a strong link into our parent company and largest client, Compass Group, collaborating with their teams for success.

Craig's team are fully involved in supporting Foodbuy Group's relationships with clients and suppliers. They ensure that we are continually driving and striving for business excellence, maximising the objectives of our business whilst meeting the needs of our customers, suppliers and clients.

With a wealth of experience spanning numerous sectors across the Compass Group business, Craig brings his experience in finance leadership into Foodbuy, to make step changes that will unlock opportunities. He is also passionate about development and nurturing talent.

Outside of work, Craig spends his time with his family typically involving being a taxi between their numerous weekend activities. He enjoys keeping active and watching sports.